Be Tolerant of Zero Tolerance

Dick Heil

As we all know, the ACBL has enacted a Zero Tolerance Policy at all of their Tournaments. Our Club has frequently reviewed the implementation of this Policy for our Club and so far has chosen not to enact this policy. I do not know if we should or should not have a ZT Policy, but I do know that at least 10 novices have been lost because they were poorly treated at a regular game or they witnessed rude behavior by some of the "Senior Members".

Every organization has 10% of its members that are less than cordial; unfortunately, this minority can sometimes give a bad reputation to the entire organization. I am sure each one of us can think of a few of our members who could use some lessons in cordial behavior. Who is going to take the responsibility for telling this minority that their behavior is unacceptable? Should we place that responsibility on the shoulders of the Game Director? Should we tell our Board of Directors that it is their responsibility? No, I believe not. Each of us should take the responsibility—regardless of our masterpoint count or our experience level—to take the offender aside and let them know how you feel about their behavior. We are all adults and have had many life experiences, each of us has earned the right and has the duty to make our Club better. If we just stand on the sidelines and do not get involved, we all will suffer because of the rude minority.

This will not be easy. It will take some courage to walk up to an intolerant person and suggest that his or her behavior is not acceptable. But we cannot shirk our duty to the rest of the members, each of us must act for the betterment of all. There is a saying “If it is going to be; it is up to me.”

Hopefully, most of you reading this will agree with me. If you do not agree with me, let us discuss it.

Each of us need to ask ourselves “Am I one of the 10%er’s ?” ♦

Zero Tolerance Policy

Be cool! Bridge is fun.

The ACBL Board of Directors and Management are committed to improving acceptable player behavior at all times. In accordance with Laws 74, 80F, 81C4, 90A, 91, and 92A (Laws of Duplicate Bridge) the following policy outlines what is expected of all players during NABCs and other ACBL sponsored events, as well as in the playing area before and after each session.

The ultimate purpose of the Z-T policy is to create a much more pleasant atmosphere in our NABCs. We are attempting to eradicate unacceptable behavior in order to make the game of bridge more enjoyable for all. Below are some examples of commendable behavior, which, while not required, will significantly contribute to the improved atmosphere:

- Being a good 'host' or 'guest' at the table.
- Greeting others in a friendly manner.
- Praising the bidding and/or play of the opponents
- Having two clearly completed convention cards readily available to the opponents (This one is a regulation, not just a nicety)

The following list are some examples of behavior which will not be tolerated:

- Badgering, rudeness, insinuations, intimidation, profanity, threats, or violence.
- Negative comments concerning opponents' or partner's play or bidding.
- Constant and gratuitous lessons and analyses at the table.
- Loud and disruptive arguing with a director's ruling.

If a player at the table behaves in an unacceptable manner, the director should be called immediately. Annoying behavior, embarrassing remarks, or any other conduct which might interfere with the enjoyment of the game is specifically prohibited by Law 74A. Law 91A gives the director the authority to assess disciplinary penalties.

The following procedures have been given to the tournament directors for implementation.

1. At the start of each event, the director shall make an announcement that the tournament will be observing ZERO TOLERANCE for unacceptable behavior. It is requested that the director be called whenever behavior is not consistent with the guidelines outlined above.
2. The director, when called, shall make an assessment of the situation. If it is established that there was unacceptable behavior, an immediate  $\frac{1}{4}$  board disciplinary penalty (3 IMP in team games) shall be assigned to all offenders. This may involve any one or all four players at the table irrespective of who initiated the unacceptable behavior. If both members of a partnership are guilty, the penalties are additive ( $\frac{1}{4}$  board EACH =  $\frac{1}{2}$  board!). The Board of Directors strongly believes that assignment of disciplinary penalties will improve the overall behavior at our tournaments.
3. If it is determined that a second offense has occurred in the same event, then the offender(s) shall be ejected from future competition in that event. An offender removed from an event shall be deemed to have not played in the event, no masterpoints will be awarded and no refunds will be made. In the case of a serious offense and in the case of multiple offenses (three) during a tournament, a disciplinary committee may be convened to determine whether the offender(s) should be allowed to play in other events at the tournament and/or whether additional sanctions may be appropriate.
4. Warnings are strongly discouraged and will be given only when there is no clear violation or in cases where the facts cannot be determined. Offenders are to receive immediate penalties. Regardless of who may have initiated unacceptable behavior, ALL offenses are punishable. Retaliatory behavior is a punishable offense. Frivolous accusations will also be considered as offenses under this policy.
5. In accordance with the Laws of Duplicate Bridge, a director's decision to impose a disciplinary is final; however, all such decisions may be appealed. An appeals committee may not overturn the director's decision, but could recommend that the director reconsider the imposition of a penalty. It should be noted that the committee may feel that the penalty assessed was not severe enough and may refer the matter to a disciplinary committee.

6. A Zero Tolerance Report Form shall be available for players to report incidents which occur away from the table; and for directors to document complaints and action taken. The DIC shall provide a summary report of all behavioral penalties to the Tournament Chairman and/or Recorder. ♦

Transplant Plea

Don Gattinger had kidney failure this past summer and is presently on dialysis 3 times a week. He is waiting for a cadaver kidney, which could take 3–5 years. If he can find a live donor, the wait is in months and there is a greater chance of a successful transplant. The donor must be under 60, in excellent health, blood type O (positive or negative). Anyone interested in helping can call Joanie, transplant nurse at Baptist Transplant Center (in confidence) at (501) 202-1500, or call Don at (479) 936-5855. ♣
