February Board Minutes

Jo Blanchard, Secretary

February 8, 2004

Margaret Kelley called the meeting to order. The attendees were Jo Blanchard, Norma Campbell, Mike Compton, Tommye Davis, Ann Ferrill, Dick Heil, Barbara Miles, Lou Morris, Rick Lowens, and Diane Tait.

The minutes of the last meeting were read, amended, approved, and seconded.

A written treasurer's report was not provided for this meeting but Rick noted that the table count for January 2004 is 270.5 tables—the highest monthly count since 1995. He also noted that we currently have 202 paid members.

OLD BUSINESS:

Dick provided an education proposal for the board's review which includes suggested fees to be paid by students and suggested fees to be paid to instructors. Since the Bridge House is responsible for education, the (LRDBC) board asked that the proposal be given to the Bridge House board members for review.

Flyers and posters were discussed and will be made for the April Little Rock Tournament.

The 2004 directory is at the printers and copies should be ready by next week. Reimbursement for some of the fees associated with the directory will be submitted to ACBL for refund.

The Master-Novice games were discussed and will continue to be scheduled on the 4th Tuesday of each month. The next game is February 24, 2004 and Ann volunteered to post a list of masters. It was noted that a number of prior novices who took advantage of this opportunity to play with the masters are now life masters themselves. The board asked for suggestions on how to promote and to encourage our novice members to participate in these games.

NEW BUSINESS:

It was recommended and approved to add a crash bar to the front door. Handicap parking spots will also be marked.

The following parties were scheduled:
